

Donate New or Gently Used Books to The Center for Family Safety and Healing

Books are distributed to patients to read during their visit and to take home. The Center for Family Safety and Healing (TCFSH) providers know how important it is to children to have access to books. Letting patients choose a book to take home is one way of fulfilling that goal.

What kind of books can I donate?

- New or very gently used books
- Reading level from birth up to high school
- No books with torn or ripped pages please
- No explicit sexual content please

Where should I take my book donation?

- Donations can be dropped off at TCFSH during regular business hours, Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. – 5 p.m.
- Location: 655 East Livingston Avenue, Columbus, OH 43205
- Parking: rear of the building
